

NATHANIEL CHAPMAN

Nathaniel Chapman is an extremely talented contemporary artist, hailing from several Indigenous clans: Goenpul of North Stradbroke, Yuggera of Brisbane City and Wambia of the Northern Territory.

Many of his talents descend from the Wambia tribe's unique artistic techniques, which are prominent in his works.

As a young Indigenous man, he had the privilege to travel to multiple countries devotedly expressing his cultural heritage through song & dance. His skin name is 'BILLEN' which means the Parrot & now expresses himself through Art.
